

Sustainable Finance Geneva Co-Founders Bios

Etienne Eichenberger

Title: Co-Founder

Company: WISE partnership

Biography

Etienne Eichenberger is co-founder of WISE partnership, an organization that accompanies donors and their families in fulfilling their philanthropic aspirations. He is well acquainted with financial and political spheres. He began his career at Nestlé, followed by the Swiss Agency for Co-operation and Development. In 1999, as Senior Manager at the Centre for Strategic Insight (part of the World Economic Forum), Etienne was responsible for the global agenda in the areas of security in the humanitarian sector, global governance and international development. Consultant for the Schmidheiny Group's Avina Foundation and co-founder of Casa Alianza Suisse, Etienne has always privileged ties with international development in his activities within decision-making circles.

Areas of Expertise

Philanthropy for individuals and families; developing and implementing a strategy in philanthropy; philanthropy services for private bank, family office and personal advisors.

Why is SFG important to you and/or why does sustainable finance in Geneva matter to you ?

- It will profile the relevance of Geneva-based expertise on the issue while regrouping leading actors on the issues.
- It will enhance the cross-fertilization between the private banking industry and the sustainable finance key organizations.
- It will help to sharpen the individual engagement while facilitating peer-to-peer exchange and access to strategic insight.