

Sustainable Finance Geneva Co-Founders Bios

Guillaume Taylor

Title: Founder

Company: Quadia SA Impact Finance

Biography

Prior to founding Quadia, Guillaume was a partner from 2002 to 2010 at de Pury Pictet Turrettini & Co. Ltd (PPT) where he was in charge of sustainable finance for private clients. Guillaume previously worked from 1995 to 2002 as a private portfolio manager at Darier Hentsch & Cie Private Bankers. From 1989 to 1995, Guillaume was a credit analyst and treasury specialist at Intel Corporation in London and Paris.

Guillaume is a board member since 2000 of ECLOF International, one of the oldest microfinance institutions in the world. Guillaume has traveled extensively in emerging countries. In 2007, he co-founded and is currently treasurer of Sustainable Finance Geneva (SFG), an association which aims at promoting responsible investing within the Geneva financial community.

Since 2009, Guillaume is an independent member of the sustainability board of Firmenich, a multinational flavor and fragrance company. He is also on the Steering Committee of WWF International's campaign for a Living Planet. Guillaume is a member of the board of directors of Gramitech S.A., a Swiss environmental technology company active in natural fiber insulation boards. Finally, he is a member of a business angel network investing in for-profit European companies contributing to a sustainable world.

Touching the subject of impact finance, Guillaume has lectured in Switzerland, Luxembourg and India. He has been interviewed by several major print media outlets and has participated in several Swiss and French radio programs.

Areas of Expertise

Wealth management and micro-finance.

Why is SFG important to you and/or why does sustainable finance in Geneva matter to you?

SFG adds credibility and support to my drive to change my client's approach to their portfolio and investments. It is important for Geneva to be a center of excellence in sustainable finance in order to attract the necessary competences that will provide efficient support to the financial community.